NEW PUBLICATIONS

20.000 IN ONE MORTE.— Although but a single month has passed since the first copy of this brilliant work was issued, yet no great has been the demand for the last and most beautiful work from the pen of the last and most beautiful work from the pen of its lamented authoress, that we are printing the twen-selt thousand, with an unabacted demand still pressing us. Since the days of the Lamplighter, no book has sold so rapidly, or become so universally reputar. Colonel Fuller, of the New York Mirror, in one of the most elegant articles over penned in regard to suthers or theur productions, uses the following them and hashiful language.

while her soul floated down to the cossen of rest. On almo every page we can trace the shadow of the death angel whore her awa- when her song was ended. Mysterious glean from bens ats the up utting yell of spirit land startle us aswersathe book is a broadcast farewell—a lingering hang graup from ene we loved. If we mistake not, its most impressive passage are revelations of the inner life of the writer—wonderfull yird and absorbing houses. story.
